PENINSULAR AND ORIENTAL COMPANY.

QUARANTINE AT EGYPTIAN AND CONTINENTAL PORTS.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made for PASSING the Company's steamers THROUGH THE SUEZ CANAL in QUARANTINE, thus avoiding any detention in Egypt.

The HOMEWARD MAILS are now being landed at BRINDISI, which is still imposed at the ports of all other Continental Ports, PREVENTS the delay of PASSENGERS, and the QUICKEST route by which they can reach England is to proceed to PLYMOUTH DIRECT.

The speed of the steamers will continue to be reduced as much as possible. The last four steamers will make the voyage from Bombay to Plymouth in 26 days, while the Continental route is again open, passengers taking three-monthly Return Tickets will be allowed the duration of a fortnight, if required.

CHUBB'S NEW PATENT SAFES,
Most Secure Against
FIRE AND THIEVES.

CHUBB'S PATENT SAFES are now made on entirely NEW and IMPROVED PRINCIPLES which give increased security against both FIRE and THIEVES. These improvements have been embodied in TEN PATENTS, and all the advantages arising therefrom are found in CHUBB'S NEW PATENT WROUGHT-IRON SAFES. The chief points of these NEW SAFES are (1), an increased thickness of the Fire-Resisting Chambers; (2), the frame being a special wrought-iron section with a thickened corner, its strength is enormous and the power necessary to bend it can hardly be applied but by machinery; (3), the bolts of the lock fastened behind this solid iron in place of, as is usually the case, into a lining; (4), the bolts and lock case are fastened to the door by a heavy angle-iron frame, and in any attempt to force open the safe pressure would come on this solid angle-iron and not on any screws or rivets; (5), the inside of the door is now made with a series of rebates or recesses giving greater security against wedging and also hindering the passage of flames or heat to the interior of the Safes; (6) the edges of the outer plates are recessed into the frame so that there is no open joints; (7) all the Safes are fitted with CHUBB'S NEW PATENT LOCK which is GUNPOWDER-PROOF, DRILL-PROOF, &c.

Sizes.—22 by 17 by 16 with one drawer, 24 by 18 by 18 with one drawer, 26 by 20 by 20 with one drawer, 28 by 22 by 21 with one drawer, 31 by 24 by 22 with two drawers, 34 by 25 by 23 with one drawer, and 36 by 26 by 23 with two drawers.

There is a falling off in the trade demand for money to the extent of nearly seven lakhs of rupees, as indicated by the position of the loans and bills discounted. DEFECTIVE OR FAILING SIGHT.

THE sense of sight is so valuable that the importance of perfect and carefully adjusted spectacles can scarcely be overrated ; although the wearing of single pe-ge-ases should be strictly avoided, we have the highest medical authority, confirmed by daily experience, that imperfect glasses, together with the haphazard plan of selection generally employed, are frequent causes of irremediable injury to the sight ; and as no present economy can compensate for such a loss, it behoves all to be cautious how they are tempted to use the common pebble or glass spectacles now so generally sold.

For the guidance of those who are using pebble spectacles, it may be stated that when the pebbles are cut against the grain, and not polished on the principle which has been universally declared the most appropriate, based on scientific research, they are injurious to the sight.

Unadvisable as the unnecessary wearing of spectacles undoubtedly is, the common notion that their use should be postponed to the utmost is proved beyond dispute to be a grave mistake.

Being in possession of all the optical instruments taken over by us from Dr. A. Meniet, we are not only in a position to suit the eye sight to perfection, but to supply different accommodations for each eye which so frequently are needed.

The Bombay Gazette

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1883.

THE appointment of Mr. J. H. Grant to the post of Collector of Bombay gave an unexpected quietus to a controversy which, though not exactly fresh, was capable of re-animation. The nomination of Mr. Grant, though putting an end, for the present, to hopes on the one side and fears on the other, is in no sense a definitive settlement of the point at issue. In filling a post claimed by the Uncovenanted Service with a member of the higher branch, Government appear to have exercised a possible discretion rather than to have uttered a pronouncement on the merits of the respective claims. The question will probably never be decided to the satisfaction of all parties, and Government have not ventured to take any step which might be construed into a positive expression of opinion. Whether the Collectorship of Bombay was a scheduled appointment or not did not affect later precedents, which had indicated a civilian as the proper individual to receive the nomination. In giving the post to Mr. Grant, Government simply continued the policy which had been followed in the case of Mr. Jacomb and others before him. The claims of the Uncovenanted Service, though passed over, have not been definitely rejected, and the discussion will doubtless be renewed whenever opportunity offers. It is to be regretted that the dispute should not be set at rest once and for all. It is only just that it should be. Government appear to think that a discretion rests with them in the matter, and that though the point of the reservation of the post may be doubtful, it is within their power to nominate a covenanted civilian. The exercise of such a power, however, would not only be unjust to a very useful branch of the Government service, but would be contrary to public policy. We offer no opinion at this moment on the merits of either party's case, but simply desire to show the necessity of coming to a decision in spite of consequences.

A short history of this appointment, since its possession became a subject of debate, will strengthen the argument in favour of an immediate and definitive resolution of the problem. For about five years previous to 1860 the Collector of Bombay was a member of the Uncovenanted Service. On the dismissal of Mr. Hutchinson, the post was again filled by a civilian. Notwithstanding this reversal of policy, the Uncovenanted Service did not relinquish their claims. They have urged them unceasingly, and lately it seemed as though they were about to be acknowledged. The confirmation of Mr. Grant in the office is a rebuff felt, no doubt, all the more keenly because it was unexpected. We do not anticipate, however, that the members of the Uncovenanted Service will be materially discouraged. On the contrary, if we judge by the past, they will renew the struggle with a pertinacity rendered all the more determined by the late prospect of success. The names of two gentlemen were lately put forward as eligible candidates, provided the legal point was settled in favour of the Uncovenanted Service. These were Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee and Mr. G. H. R. Harris. Both were passed over, and Mr. J. H. Grant, a member of the Civil Service, given the post. It so happens that, having regard to the three gentlemen concerned, the question of law and policy is left singularly free for cool discussion. It is not in the slightest degree mixed up with personal matters. All three gentlemen were eligible candidates, and all three deserve substantial consideration at the hands of Government. Mr. Grant, the present holder, has a statutory claim to a good appointment, which he has, moreover, earned by valuable services rendered to the State. The value of Mr. Hart's services can hardly be estimated by an outsider. He has filled a post—at all times arduous and delicate—during periods of exceptional responsibility, and has fully acquired those claims which traditionally belong to industrious private secretaries. Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee's merits do not require to be told. He has passed many years in the public service—doing good work and earning sincere commendation. As Income Tax Collector he was specially complimented by one of our Viceroys. He occupies an important and dignified magisterial position, and now, towards the close of his career, he might fairly lay claim to such an easy and lucrative post as the Collectorship of Bombay. Mr. Dosabhoy has been a candidate for the appointment for many years. Sir Seymour Fitzgerald was said to look kindly on his claims, and was supported by Mr. (now Sir) Barrow Ellis. This was about a dozen years ago, and the same objections were raised then that have been urged now. The members of the Covenanted Service claimed the appointment under the well-known schedule, and their arguments and influence were sufficiently powerful to procure a continuation of their tenure. When the Queen was proclaimed Empress of India it was reported, on what seemed reasonable grounds, that one or two high appointments were to be conferred on natives who had distinguished themselves in the Uncovenanted Service. The Collectorship of Bombay was naturally suggested as one of these, and Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee was designated as the possible recipient. Nothing, however, came of the suggestion ; and the matter rested until August last year, when, to the surprise of most, and the indignation of many, members of the Civil Service, the present Governor made Mr. Dosabhoy acting Collector. Irrespective of those whose interests were affected, the appointment met with general approval. It was approved of on two grounds : firstly, because of the merits of the nominee ; and secondly, because many people thought the Uncovenanted Service required some reward and encouragement. It was only natural, however, that civilians should view with dissatisfaction the alienation of a rich appointment they resolutely considered to be their own. About a dozen of them formally protested, holding Mr. Dosabhoy's nomination to be a breach of law and of their covenant. The protest was sent to the Secretary of State, who, acting under the advice of the law officers of the Crown, replied that the Collectorship of Bombay was not one of those offices which were specially reserved for members of the Civil Service, and mentioned in the schedule attached to the Indian Civil Service Act. It appeared, therefore, as though the prize had been finally awarded to the members of the Uncovenanted Service. It was, however, their turn for surprise, when Mr. Grant was gazetted to the position.

If the decision of the Secretary of State is to be accepted as authoritative—and it must —we are bound to assume that Mr. Grant's appointment was not intended to prejudice the claims of the Uncovenanted Service. Government, as we have already said, believe they have a discretionary power, and, wishing to find a place for Mr. Grant, they lighted on the Collectorship of Bombay. If the Secretary of State definitely excluded this appointment from those enumerated in the schedule of the Civil Service Act, the Bombay Government appear to have evaded his ruling. The scheduled appointments have heretofore been considered to be sufficient for the claims of the Civil Service. They are secured exclusively to that branch, and all others have been handed over to what, for the moment, we may call outsiders. If the Collectorship of Bombay were not scheduled, it is manifestly a prize appertaining to those branches which are not covenanted. It may be urged that there is a block in promotion in the Civil Service, and, consequently, it is necessary to go outside the schedule to find appointments for covenanted civilians. But if appointments, hitherto conceded to them, may not be filled by civilians ? There is no reason why this appropriation should stop at the Bombay Collectorship. If all offices were open to Government services without distinction, then they must take their chance. But if the Civil Service is to have a list of rich appointments specially reserved, they must give up the remainder to their less fortunate colleagues. This, we are convinced, was the object of Parliament, and is the logical outcome of the decision of the Secretary of State. We have no desire to diminish the prizes at the disposal of the Civil Service, and had the office been held to be a scheduled appointment, we should probably have taken no exception to its remaining so. At the same time, even if it be considered an open question, it seems to us that the Collectorship of Bombay is an office peculiarly suited to an eminent native or a deserving member of the Uncovenanted Service. The tendency is now to increase the number of offices within reach of these classes. Their exclusion from all high appointments must be modified, sooner or later, and the concession of such an office as the Collectorship of Bombay, which is apparently their own by legal right, would, doubtless, satisfy their aspirations for years to come. They have very few superior posts within their reach. The office of Director-General of Public Instruction is open only to a limited number, and the others are not of much account. The appointment of Mr. Grant has unquestionably been a great disappointment and discouragement to the Uncovenanted Service. If the office had been declared a scheduled one they would have been content, but in view of the decision of the Secretary of State it appears unjust to appoint a civilian who might have been adequately provided for elsewhere.

[illegible]TTA correspondent says that the [illegible] the Statesman office is likely to lead [illegible]gs at law. Mr. Riach, it appears, was [illegible]d of the editorship at three days' notice, [illegible]ery scant courtesy. He therefore is pre[illegible]ring an action. It is alleged also that Mr. [illegible]o preceded, and who now has succeeded, [illegible]editorial chair, has made allegations which [illegible]n which will form the subject of a suit [illegible]n. This "newspaper war" is not, our [illegible] states, wholly a personal affair. The [illegible] editorship has resulted in a sudden [illegible] of policy with regard to the Bengal Rent [illegible]d, party-feeling running so high just now on [illegible]subject, there is a great deal of bitterness. [illegible]ent Bill, it is expected, will be fought clause by [illegible] the wealthy zemindars being resolved to leave [illegible]e unturned to defeat or modify that measure [illegible]oliation."

[illegible]mmittee on the Bengal Rent Bill is ex[illegible]-assemble in Calcutta about the mid[illegible]-ember, the Lieutenant-Governor of [illegible]al, Sir Steuart Bayley, and the Hon'ble Mr. [illegible]bert resuming their places on it, with the [illegible]on'ble Mr. W. W. Hunter, vice Sir Evelyn Bar[illegible]g. The Bhagulpore Landholders' Association [illegible]resented an address to the Hon. Rivers Thomp[illegible]on the other day, praying that His Honour [illegible] would not allow the rights of an important and [illegible]rge section of the community to be sacrificed [illegible]r the sake of mere sentiment and policy." The [illegible]ieutenant-Governor replied :—

[illegible]The Government now is attempting to do what it [illegible]ght to have done under the rights which it [illegible]ceived to itself nearly a century ago ; and the necessity for this has arisen from the very strained relations that now prevail between landlord and tenant, and from the duty which Government owes to the large classes of cultivators of land whose rights have been overlooked and are endangered. I trust that the deliberations in Council will result in a broad and liberal measure in whose justice all can acquiesce, and you have a guarantee in the constitution of the Council (which contains representatives of zemindars and ryots, and planters and officials) that the claims of all parties will receive a fair and full consideration. My own belief is, though I am not prepared to accept every section of the present draft Bill, that the main principle of it is sound, and that its result will not justify the apprehensions as to its dangerous character which you now appear to entertain.

THE Pioneer makes a lame sort of amende, but without expressing any regret, for the disgraceful paragraph it published a week or two since, alleging that the Viceroy could not venture to open the Calcutta Exhibition because not a single European in Bengal would attend if he did so. The Pi now is "glad to be informed that Lord Ripon will certainly preside at the opening of the Calcutta Exhibition," and even goes so far as to admit that "the arrangement is one which, the uncertain humour of the Calcutta public notwithstanding, is likely to afford pretty general satisfaction." The "uncertain humour of the Calcutta public" is not likely to lead to the least disrespect towards Lord Ripon ; and the Pioneer's original insinuation to that effect was as absurd as it was vulgar.

The report of the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency (Mr. J. Westland) on the operations of the Currency Department for the year 1882-83 shows that there were in circulation notes and coined money to the value of Rs. 14,50,64,075 on the 31st March last, as compared to Rs. 13,90,71,780 on the 1st April last year. One of the most noticeable features in the year's transactions was a diminution of about 48 lakhs in the twenty-rupee notes in circulation, and a corresponding increase of ten-rupee notes. This peculiar fluctuation is attributed the announcement that certain forged twenty-rupee notes were in circulation having destroyed the public confidence in that class of notes. The following account is given of this incident :—

There was one new case of forgery—namely, one of twenty-rupee notes of the Calcutta series. The forgery was rather better executed than usual, the notes being quite good enough to pass muster when not separately examined. The first two of them were presented at the Calcutta Office on August 2, 1883, and were at once detected. A warning was immediately issued to the public, which was followed by a singular panic, the Currency Office being crowded every day for some time with people anxious to get rid of their twenty-rupee notes. In this process five more notes of the same forgery came in, and since then four more have been received. The effect of this forgery upon the circulation of Calcutta twenty-rupee notes was very marked ; it fell from Rs. 64,23,260 in August to Rs. 17,61,400 in the following March, while the amount of the ten-rupee notes rose in the same period from Rs. 89,60,120 to Rs. 1,34,19,310. The forgery in this case has not yet been brought home to any one ; the difficulty in pursuing the investigations being due to the fact that the public rarely keep record of the numbers of small notes passing through their hands. We have, however, one consolation in the circumstance that the forgery can hardly have been successful as a paying speculation, as apparently only Rs. 200 or Rs. 300 in all have been put in circulation. In Bombay two more notes of the M—24 series of forgeries (one hundred rupees) were found in June, No. 21243 in January, 1883, and the other, No. 54367, on 19th March, 1883. These notes are not good enough to deceive any ordinarily careful person. The forgers of them were convicted in 1877, another attempt at fraud is reported from Bombay,—namely, that of a man who, coming into possession of a mismatched note, divided the halves and claimed on each of them, on the allegation that he had possessed the entire notes and lost the other halves. The case is still with the Law Officers.

Nearly 2½ crores rupee coins and nearly eighty thousand half-rupees are reported to have been cut at treasuries in the Madras Presidency during the year, on account of being "believed to have lost by reasonable wear more than 2 per cent. in weight." The Head Commissioner remarks that these figures will be inquired into, adding that "if they are right, the coin in that Presidency seems to be in a comparatively unsatisfactory state."

MR. W. HARVEY, C.E., Assistant Director-General of State Railways, is about to take up the appointment of Deputy Manager of the Rajputana State Railway, Ajmere. Mr. J. C. Ledger, Executive Engineer, Bhopal State Railway, will succeed him.

ACCORDING to letters from beyond the frontier, received at Lahore, Parwanah Khan, the Governor of Cabul, has written to the Ameer to say that it is reported that Russia is giving some assistance to Sirdar Musa Khan (son of ex-Ameer Yakub) who is in Seistan ; and that trouble must be expected in Herat soon.

MR. SUTHERLAND, the station-master of Delhi, was recently prosecuted in the Judicial Commissioner's Court on a charge of having circulated certain information which he came by from a telegram sent through his office, and which, as station-master, he should have treated as confidential. Having been honourably acquitted, he dropped the matter ; but a local paper says the railway authorities insist upon his prosecuting the person who laid the charge.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Rangoon Gazette, writing from Mandalay, says great expectations are entertained there that the ambassadors recently sent to Europe will form such alliances as will enable the Burmese Government to take a more independent position with regard to British demands.

FROM the same source we learn that Kin Woon Mingyee has allowed the reins of power to slip from his hands, that Myo Woon is a prisoner under the close surveillance of his successor, and that the late Governor's son, Moung-Moung Gyee, was "barbarously done to death" some time ago, for presuming too much on his familiarity with Theebaw in their schooldays.

IN an address presented to the Hon. Rivers Thompson by the Municipality of Monghyr the other day, referring to the Bill for Local Self-Government in Bengal, they submitted that its provisions were not required in Monghyr. They were persuaded that under no system of election is such a judicious combination of European and native Commissioners likely to be secured as under the existing practice of nomination, and were further satisfied that, under the peculiar circumstances of that town, it is absolutely necessary in the interests of all classes that the numbers of European and native Commissioners should be approximately equal. They did not think that the appointment of a non-official chairman would tend to maintain the harmony and good-feeling which now exists among the Commissioners. The Lieutenant-Governor, in reply, assured them that, whatever the outcome of the Municipal Bill might be, it was not his intention to force any of its reforms upon a Municipality which did not desire them.

THE action of the Silchar Volunteers, to which we referred yesterday, does not meet with approval even from the warmest sympathisers with the feeling of opposition to the Jurisdiction Bill which prompted it. The writer of the article headed "The Week" in the Englishman's Saturday Journal says :—"The action of the Kachar Volunteers in talking about resigning at the present juncture I consider most ill-advised and inopportune. In the first place, it is not an example likely to be generally followed by the Volunteers throughout India, most of whom will have the good sense to see that in times like the present it is wiser for them to keep their arms and go through training for their mutual defence than to throw away the best chance they have of defending themselves in case of emergency. Therefore I hope, when the committees ascertain the opinions of the majority of the members, they will consider it advisable to remain enrolled under the banner of 'defence not defiance.'"

MILITARY NEWS.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF (GENERAL HARDINGE) returned to Headquarters at Poona from Sirur on Sunday afternoon.

WE hear that there will be a kind of camp of exercise on a limited scale near Poona this cold weather. It will consist of the troops in and near Poona, and in addition, of some regiments passing through Poona in course of relief. We understand that no expense will be incurred, but that it will merely be a repetition of the highly successful outing at Pashan last February, on a larger scale. That a gathering of troops—for camp of exercise is too ambitious a term—even on a small scale can be held without expense, was supposed to be an impossibility until General Hardinge proved the contrary, and it is to his energy and persistence that the coming manœuvres will be due. But this power of organizing things without expense has its drawback. The Government of India may say that what has been done once without expense should always be done in the same way, and may try to make a precedent out of what is a purely exceptional incident. The musketry school now being held at Poona is in connection with the Central Rifle Meeting, and is therefore also got up without any expense to the State. So that Bombay must be allowed to set a good example to other Presidencies in the important matter of economy. Whether the Supreme Government will take a mean advantage of this good management on the part of the military authorities in this Presidency, and withhold money grants in future, remains to be seen.

SIR FREDERICK ROBERTS, in his orders relative to the camp of exercise to be held at Bangalore, lays great stress on all orders being given in writing, to prevent the possibility of misunderstanding. As so great an authority as General "Bobs" speaks decidedly on this point, it seems rather a pity that sabretaches have been done away with in the Indian Army. Writing materials were always carried in the sabretache, and it is not easy to see how an officer is to put his orders in writing, when he has nothing in which to stow away his pencil and paper.

THE following officers have been appointed probationers for the Staff Corps :—Lieutenant Melville, 1st Suffolk, to 4th N. I. ; Lieutenant Ellison, 2nd Loyal North Lancashire, to 19th N. I. ; and Lieutenant Pinhey, Liverpool Regiment, to 23rd Bombay N. I.

Lieutenant-Colonel K. G. Henderson, King's Royal Rifle Corps, who served with the 2nd Battalion, also goes with General Lowe. Colonel Chapman will rejoin his appointment at the end of October, when Lieutenant-Colonel Gossett will, it is presumed, rejoin his regiment and proceed with it to Peshawur.

COLONEL TRAVERS, the Military Secretary to the Government of Mysore, having proceeded to Europe on sick leave, his excellent billet has been split into two. Colonel Hay, formerly of the Mysore Commission, and lately in charge of the Amlat Mehal, is appointed to act for Colonel Travers as Commandant of the Mysore "Barr" Troops, Horse and Foot, and Lieutenant Jones of the 1st Light Cavalry, is to act as Adjutant of the Ressalah.

THE 1st Battalion Royal Irish Fusiliers will be cantoned at Rawul Pindi on arrival from Aldershot.

THE 2nd Battalion Loyal North Lancashire Regiment, Allahabad, will proceed to England by one of the first troopships of the season, on relief by the 1st Battalion Durham Light Infantry from Meerut, which will be moved by rail. The date of the actual relief of the former regiment at Allahabad is November 7. The Durham Light Infantry are much under strength, being less than 600 strong.

THE Government of India have decided that in future all military publications shall be printed in one of the following sizes (pocket editions, of Manual of Field-exercise, &c., excepted.) :—(1). Ordinary foolscap or blue-book size ; (2) Large octavo, i. e. that of the War Office Codes and the Army and Transport Regulations. The type of all publications is to be the same, and that used for the present Transport Regulations is considered the most suitable.

COURT-MARTIAL.—At a European District Court-Martial held at Poona on the 31st July, Private Benjamin Parker, 2nd Battalion East Yorkshire Regiment, was arraigned upon the following charges :—(1) at Poona, on the 23rd July, when a prisoner undergoing sentence of a court-martial in the regimental cells, 2nd Battalion East Yorkshire Regiment, striking on the face with his clenched fist Acting Lance Corporal Edwin Pallister, his superior officer and in the execution of his office as Regimental Provost Assistant ; (2) conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that at Poona on the 23rd July, 1883, when a prisoner undergoing sentence of a court-martial in the regimental cells, 2nd Battalion East Yorkshire Regiment, he was in possession of a pipe and tobacco contrary to the rules of the said prison. The court found the prisoner guilty of all the charges, and sentenced him to be imprisoned with hard labour for one year and ten months, and to be discharged with ignominy from Her Majesty's service. Confirmed.

NATIVE ARMY PENSIONS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I quite agree with the general views you express in your issue of 18th inst., but you are quite mistaken in the idea that in the Bombay Army a soldier, immediately he has served thirty-two years, is pensioned. If you will refer to the Quarterly Army List ending June, 1883, you will observe there are no less than twelve native officers alone who have served thirty-two or more years. One is still on the strength of his regiment who entered the service in 1847, and another in 1848 ! It is this unequal application of the rules that causes heartburning amongst the men, who think that any C. O. who has influence at Army Head-quarters is able to have the order set aside on behalf of his regiment, whereas those who haven't are not equally successful. Either the rule should be rigidly applied in its integrity, or so relaxed that any man of thirty-two years' service, desiring to serve on, should have his fitness or otherwise dealt with by a board composed entirely of medical men, and not be left to the colonels scare and the quarantine enforced at Camaran Island. There are less pilgrims going this year than usual.

ALLEGED ASSAULT.—A Mahomedan named Allarukia Munjee appeared yesterday before Mr. C. P. Pugh, and obtained a summons against Mr. J. C. D'Aguiar, Assistant Commissary-General, charging him with an assault alleged to have been committed on the 18th instant. The summons was made returnable on the 5th proximo.

FOUND.—On Monday last Khundoo Yessoo, a tramway muccadum, found lying on the Bhendy Bazaar-road a black leather courier-bag containing a bottle of chlorodyne, a small packet of sweets, some toilet powder, and Rs. 8-11-3 in cash. The bag and its contents have been handed over to the police, and forwarded to the Office of the Commissioner of Police, Byculla, for identification.

THEFTS.—Ganoo Pursoo was yesterday convicted by Mr. C. P. Cooper of stealing a brass vessel valued at Rs. 4, the property of Balla Satoo. He was sentenced to three weeks' rigorous imprisonment.—Ebrahim Essoo was also yesterday convicted by the same magistrate of stealing two chairs, valued at Rs. 1, the property of Lilladhur Ruttonsey. He was sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment.—Luximon Sacroo was also convicted by Mr. C. P. Cooper of stealing a pair of silver ornaments, valued at Rs. 40, the property of Mooktee, woman. He was sentenced to six weeks' rigorous imprisonment.

CRIMINAL BREACH OF TRUST.—Nania Samut, a goldsmith, was yesterday convicted by Mr. P. Ryan of criminal breach of trust in respect of six tolas of gold, valued at Rs. 111, belonging to Hajee Ally Hajee Hassun. On the 3rd ultimo the prisoner was entrusted with the gold in question to be made up into three gold ear-rings, and promised to have the ear-rings prepared within seven days. He, however, pledged the gold with a Marwaree, and absconded from Bombay. He was sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment, and to pay a fine of Rs. 100, or in default to undergo a further term of two months' similar imprisonment.

THE POONA MUNICIPALITY AND THE LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT BILL.—An adjourned meeting of the Poona City Municipality was held on Monday in the Municipal Hall, Sukrawar Pet, for the purpose of discussing and adopting the report prepared by the non-official members on the several provisions of the new Bill on Local Self-Government in the Bombay Presidency. The report was generally adopted, with the exception of the last para. suggesting the provision (under the control clauses) that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, should be empowered to supersede any Municipality for neglect of duty, so far as public health and safety are concerned. This para., it was unanimously resolved, should be struck off, and replaced by Section 70 of the Bombay Presidency Municipal Act. A suggestion was also made that the definitions of the terms "Nuisance," "Residence," "Executive Municipal Officer," used in the Bombay Presidency Municipal Act, should be introduced into the body of the Bill.—Deccan Herald.

EXPORTS FROM KURRACHEE.—The monson weather is not making any appreciable difference in the trade and shipping of Kurrachee. The exports are still maintained at a much higher figure than in previous years. In the first three days of the present week, the shipments of wheat amounted to about 30,000 bags. The exports also comprised 28,058 bags of rape-seed.—Ibid.

TELEGRAPHIC WEATHER REPORT.

SIMLA, Aug. 20 :—The pressure has decreased over the Punjab, and a depression is forming over that province, which has occasioned the disappearance of the shoulder of high pressure which has so long prevailed. This has had the effect of drawing the wind into the south and east along the Gangetic Valley. The change from dry north-westerly and westerly winds to moister easterly breezes has caused a rapid rise in humidity over the Punjab and North-West Provinces, an increase of cloudiness, fall of temperature, and some rain in the Central Provinces, though the wind there is still north-westerly. The weather is damper and cloudier, and there has been some rain. Elsewhere, there is little change. Rain to-day :—Darjeeling and Pachmarhi, 2 inches ; Sibsagar, Seoni, Sutna, Masulipatam, Madras, Salem, Cochin, and Mercara, about 1 inch ; Mussoorie, Allahabad, Nagpur, and Kurnool, ½ inch. Previously :—Nowgong had 3 inches ; Silchar, Burdwan, Bareilly, and Tounghoo, 1 inch ; Hazaribagh, Neemuch, Chitaldroog, and Cuddapah, ½ inch.

IT appears from the last weekly report of the crops and the weather in the Punjab that, owing to the prolonged break in the rains, the outlook in the south-eastern districts is causing much anxiety, and that fears are entertained of a complete failure of the crops on the unirrigated lands in the Delhi and Hissar divisions.

THE PARSEES IN PERSIA.

(FROM A PERSIAN CORRESPONDENT.)

SOME time ago a few Parsee lads of Kerman volunteered to change their faith and embrace the Mahomedan religion on account of distress and poverty, with a hope to better themselves. This matter having come to the notice of the Governor, named Nusruttuddowla, uncle of the Shah, he immediately issued orders that the lads should be kept in detached quarters for a period of ten days, giving their parents and relatives an opportunity to see them. The interviews between the parents and their children resulted in some of the latter abandoning their intention and returning home, whilst a few, more stubborn, lent a deaf ear to all the persuasions of relatives. The Zoroastrian community of Kerman were greatly rejoiced at the opportunity that was offered to the lads by the Governor to retrieve themselves, and are highly thankful to him for having acted so nobly in the matter. A short time ago a Zoroastrian woman, by name Khoorsung, was murdered at Yezd by a Mahomedan named Yousf. It had been the custom with the Court of Persia to punish any Mahomedan accused of murdering a Zoroastrian with a fine of not more than eight Toomans (about Rs. 50). But the Shah of Persia, being determined to deal out open-handed justice to all his subjects, independent of caste or creed, his son, Zille Sultan, who is the present Governor of Yezd, caused the murderer to be executed. This resulted in a riot by some of the Mahomedan budmashes of Yezd, who, being excited at this unusual punishment inflicted on the unbelievers, assaulted and maltreated several of the Zoroastrians residents of the place, but the Government promptly punished all rioters, and the riot speedily subsided. Mr. Thomson, the British Consul, and the Governor, Said Zille Sultan, as also his Deputy, Sadek Khan, behaved nobly in dealing with and defended the Zoroastrians who were thus persecuted ; and Moostofee Mumalek, the Chief Minister at Teheran, telegraphed to the Said Ibrahim Kamel Khan to lose no time in bringing the offenders to justice, and to see that the Zoroastrians were in no way molested. The Zoroastrians of Yezd are highly indebted to the Persian Government and the British Consul for thus defending them when wronged, and protecting them when maltreated.

EXPORTS FROM KURRACHEE.—The monson weather is not making was extinguished by a lawsuit. The new Parcels Post is evidently looked forward to with some anxiety, and elaborate preparations have been made for working it. An enlargement of Postal premises has been effected in most of the large towns, so as to provide for the expected traffic, and in some instances it has been found necessary to obtain accommodation outside the Post-offices, at railway stations and other places. All will be in readiness by the appointed time, and when the flood once sets in there will be no ebbing of the tide. The railways will be the life and soul of the parcels traffic, but auxiliary to these there must needs be an extensive provision for the delivery of parcels by the servants of the Post Office. Means specially adapted to the purpose will, of course, be devised and some marked changes in Postal operations may be looked for.

The Telephone system appears to make moderate progress. Mr. Fawcett dismisses the subject in a brief paragraph, from which we learn that the Post Office has established additional Telephone exchanges during the year in ten towns, and that the nine companies to whom licences have been granted have now forty-seven exchanges in operation. The Electric Telegraph flourishes, though the increase in the number of messages during the year was not great, for which result Mr. Fawcett offers the explanation that the financial year included "two Easters," involving four holidays. More than thirty-two million messages, or telegrams, are nevertheless a magnificent fact. When the minimum charge for inland telegrams is reduced from one shilling to sixpence a fresh impetus will, of course, be given to this part of the work. It is somewhat of a transition to pass from the statistics of letters and telegrams to the finances of the Savings Banks, but the operations of the Post Office are now of a very complex character. In this department we find decided growth, the increase on the year being greater than at any period since the establishment of the Post Office Savings Banks in 1861. The amount due to depositors last March was fully forty millions sterling. It is also a notable fact that the Savings Bank business in Ireland showed a large increase. Investment in the Government Funds through the Post Office is retarded by the high price of Government Stock. In regard to the Money Order business it is found that the Inland Orders decline in number, but increase in their total amount. It is a cumbrous system, and we are not surprised that the Postal Orders are welcomed by the public. Here there is a large increase, and when the Postmaster General carries out the further improvements promised we may expect additional leaps and bounds. In the previous year the Postal Orders represented a sum of two millions, while last year the amount was not far short of three and a half millions. As a whole, the annual report of the Post Office must be considered a highly satisfactory document. The net revenue shows a slight decrease compared with the previous year, but this is fully accounted for by an increase of expenditure, which may be expected ultimately to enlarge the profits. A clear balance of more than three millions is a splendid sum, and the decrease is small compared with the increased outlay. The falling off in the net revenue is less than forty thousand pounds, while as much as sixty-three thousand pounds have been added to the remuneration of the letter carriers, besides thirty-four thousand pounds for the benefit of the sub-postmasters. A large sum has also been expended in improving the Telegraphic communication with Ireland, and thirteen thousand pounds have been laid out for a Telegraph cable Depôt at Woolwich. The Post Office is also going to have its own cable ship, at a cost of forty-six thousand pounds. Thus the department is spreading out its arms, and works with a will in all that it undertakes. The machinery is vast but it performs its functions with a smoothness and a precision which are a sure test of efficiency. There are more than fifteen thousand Post-offices in the United Kingdom, and the total number of receptacles for all sorts of letters is reckoned at thirty thousand. The strength of the regular Postal staff—that is to say, of persons holding permanent situations, and entitled to pensions, is about forty-four thousand. We may almost double the number if we include those who are only partially employed. The entire department is one eminent for its industry, its energy, and its enormous utility. To what further use it may be put, time alone can show.—Standard.

NOTICE.

JAMES PURDEY & SONS, late of 314, Oxford-street, London, W., GUN and RIFLE MANUFACTURERS by Special Appointment to Her Majesty the Queen, H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, and His Excellency the Viceroy of India, beg to give notice that they have REMOVED to new and more spacious premises especially erected by them, and that their address now is

AUDLEY HOUSE, 57 and 58, SOUTH AUDLEY-STREET LONDON, W.

They take this opportunity to inform Indian sportsmen that, having erected new and much larger factories, they are enabled to supply Guns and Rifles especially suited to the Indian market, at prices which will favourably compare with those of other makers.

Hitherto J. PURDEY and SONS have confined their business to the manufacture of weapons of the highest finish only, but acting upon the advice of many of their Indian patrons, they are now prepared to make to special order Guns and Rifles (the latter more particularly) of different grades, all of which are perfect as regards shooting qualities and strength.

By their new system of rifling, they have secured in their Extra Express Rifles (400 to 577 bore) the flattest trajectory yet obtained with a minimum amount of friction and recoil, and great accuracy.

Large bore Rifles of great power, with the smallest amount of recoil for elephant and other big game (These are not made hammerless.) Special miniature Express Rifles for antelope, bustard and tree patridge shooting. Smooth-bore Guns with Flush Sight, especially recniated for shooting ball and shot.

Their new Patent Rebounding Hammerless Guns and Rifles, after the most severe and thorough trials, are acknowledged to be the handiest, strongest, most easily manipulated and simplest produced. Harmless Guns and Rifles are at present only made in one quality, viz., the best, and are expensive.

In Double Bl. Guns the prices range from £225 to the best quality at £56. Double Extra Express Rifles (450 and 500 bore) in four qualities, from £30 to £73 10s. Larger bores slightly increasing in price with each size miniature double Express Rifles for antelope, &c., from £18.

The cartridges are all for weapons without case or implements, which are extra, only measures being sent with the Guns, and measures and moulds with the Rifles cases and implements, according to grade, from £3 to £6-6.

TERMS.—One-third of amount to accompany order, balance to be paid in London on completion of goods. J. P. & S. being always full of orders weapons will in most cases take from 4½ to 6 months (from receipt of order) to make.

THE "BULL DOG'S HEAD" BRAND.
(BASS'S ALE AND GUINNESS'S STOUT.)

READ BROTHERS, of London, request the purchasers of their Bottled Ale and Stout to ask for "THE DOG'S HEAD BRAND," because another and totally distinct Bottler uses the figure of a Bull Dog, and thus two bottlings of entirely different character may both be called "BULL DOG."

The original "Bull Dog" mark is the registered property of READ BROTHERS, and their bottling still often goes by that name, but the title of "DOG'S HEAD BRAND" is theirs exclusively, and is the only one that is protected by the injunction of the Lords Justices of England.
